DIVISION OF MINING STATISTICS AND TECHNOLOGY,

Washington, D. C., April 6th, 1883

Hon. A. London Snowden,
Superintendent,
U. S. Mint at Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have already thanked Hon. Horatio C. Burchard, Director of the Mint, for the valuable statistics of nickel coinage, etc., prepared at his request for use in our work. I desire also to express my sincere thanks to the officers of the Philadelphia Mint, and to apologize for the trouble caused in compiling these statistics.

Very respectfully,

Albert Williams, jr.,
U. S. Geological Survey.
